

Your Right to Withdraw Consent

You retain the right to withdraw your consent for electronic delivery of periodic statements. You may withdraw your consent at any time by giving us at least ten (10) days prior written notice. Our contact information is as follows:

Summit National Bank

133 Main St.

Hulett, WY 82720

Phone: (307) 467-5261

www.summitnb.com

Once you have withdrawn your consent, we will then discontinue the eStatement Service for the account and paper statements and notices will be resumed. The cancelation of eStatements in no way affects the validity or legal effect of all eStatements and disclosures which have been previously delivered electronically under the eStatement Service. There is no fee to withdraw your consent and resume paper statements and notices but a fee may be imposed for paper statements.
